Last Week's Run

It's difficult to believe that the third Songkran under covid restrictions is upon us. This year the regulations are somewhat less Draconian than in the previous two years. In 2020 the sale of alcohol was totally banned everywhere. How did we all survive? So things are slowly getting back to somewhere near normality. Anyway, this Saturday's run was at Superman's and Superbitch's Billabong resort. Over thirty of the regulars and a couple of those lesser spotted visitors turned out on a day in the high thirties Celsius. We gathered in a glade of eucalyptus trees where I could see one of those big beer coolers – I believe the Ausies refer to them as eskies- full to the brim with ice cold water. The throwing of water may be banned in Thailand, but the Billabong resort is apparently on Australian soil. Therefore no such laws exist.

The run took us through the village and up into the forest, traversing some quite steep hills, and around the back of the Night Safari. The wimp section of the run turning out to be the most difficult part. Today saw Bushy Tail reaching 100 runs with the occasion being celebrated in inimitable Thai Songkran style by means of the Thai Corruption making sure we were all blessed with icy cold water.

On a more sobering note, it was with great sadness that we remembered Geoff ( Pamela) Jones who passed away on the previous Sunday en route to the US. Pamela had been a stalwart of the CSH3 for over 20 years. He had clocked up 773 runs, 61 of those as hare and was GM in 2004 -05. He will be remembered for his witty repartee in the circle and his support for the CSH3 over the years. He will be sadly missed.

I'm sure I speak for us all in expressing our deep found sympathy to his Wife Kung and children Jeremy and Nicola.

Pamela will be missed.

Is anybody paying attention to the harebrief?

Sticky and Shagless, ready to go.

And they are off! Always on Top, Periodical, Suckit, Scooby and Stumbling Dyke are the front-walking bastards.

Square Rooter and Tip Toe, the rear-walking bastards.

Piggy enjoying the stroll through Sups' moobahn.

Sticky Mango thinks "This is the wimp run? Wimp runs don't have hills like this!"

Always on Top and Doesn't Get it follow
